

FE GA

A black and white photograph capturing a poignant moment between three people. A man on the left, wearing a dark beret and a heavy, dark jacket, has his arms around a woman and a child. The woman, positioned in the center, is also dressed in a dark, long coat and is holding a young child. They are standing in front of a dark, vertically-paneled train car. The letters "FE GA" are visible on the side of the car. The scene is set outdoors, with the train tracks and wheels visible in the lower right corner. The overall mood is one of affection and connection.
